Polk County Dental Association Navigating Dentoalveolar Infections

Dr. Jason Cho

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

The presentation will be on the examination, treatment and triage of dentoalveolar infections seen in the dental office. Focus will be on basic medical and surgical management, and when to appropriately refer out for complicated infections.

My name is Jason Cho, and I am a second-generation Korean-American from Davis, CA. I was born in Seoul, South Korea, and spent most of my childhood in Davis, California. My parents, Greg and Eunmi Cho, who were both born in Korea, currently work as professors in mechanical engineering and special education, respectively, at the Sacramento State University in Sacramento, CA. My younger sister Jane is currently a lawyer in the Bay Area in California.

I graduated in 2004 from Davis Senior High School, and played varsity hockey for the Davis High Blue Devils. I graduated from Cornell University in Ithaca, NY, in 2008 with a bachelor's degrees in Economics and Biology, and then from SUNY Stony Brook Dental School in Stony Brook, NY, in 2014 with a dental degree. I had the good fortune of matching to the Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery residency at the University of Pittsburgh in 2014, where I was also blessed to have met my now-wife Polly. As part of my residency training, I graduated from the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine with a medical degree in 2018 and then finally attained my OMS surgical certificate in 2020. Now, I am excited to be living in Lakeland, in the great state of Florida!

In my free time, I love to travel, hike, and explore the beautiful outdoors with my wife Polly, a periodontist. We are also big Disney fans, and are excited to be living close to the parks. I look forward to meeting all of you in person soon!

This meeting will be held at Grasslands Golf & Country Club, 1600 Grasslands Blvd., Lakeland. Dinner will be served @ 6:30 pm and the meeting will start @ 7 pm. Please RSVP to Tisha Talbot via email pcdaemail@gmail.com.
